New for 2010, Coaches Come Free

ACE wants to give coaches the tools necessary to build successful quizbowl programs. To that end, we're offering free registration to any coach of a school that sends four or more students to camp. Any coach of a team that sends fewer than four students can attend for a reduced rate of $275.

In addition to the opportunity to network with other coaches and sit in on student sessions, coaches will participate in daily coaching workshops where they will learn skills and techniques for recruiting players, running practices, hosting tournaments, fundraising, and preparing students for competition.

2010 Camps

ACE Camper Wins Award

Sarah Angelo, a senior at the Maggie Walker Governor's School in Richmond, VA, and two time ACE camper has been named the 2010 Benjamin Cooper Young Academic Ambassador. The award citation recognizes "her outstanding and dedicated work as a tournament director and editor, which has expanded and enhanced the independent quizbowl circuit throughout the Mid-Atlantic region." Congratulations Sarah!

April Study Guide

In addition to hours of quizbowl competition and great instruction from experienced quizbowl coaches and players, ACE campers receive dozens of valuable handouts and study materials. Each month on www.acequizbowlcamp.com, we post a study guide that should help you prepare for competition and give you an idea of the materials that ACE Campers receive.

Former ACE Campers Win Collegiate National Championships

Congratulations to Dallas Simmons of Harvard and Ian Eppler of Brown, two former ACE campers whose teams won the Division I and Division II championships respectively of the NAQT Intercollegiate Tournament (ICT).

Sixty-Four of the country's best college quizbowl teams (many featuring former ACE campers) competed on April 10 in Chicago for the NAQT crown.
